Request for Your Tax Return

Why Are You Getting This Notice?

Our records show that you have not filed the tax return as shown below.

Form	Tax Period Ending
1040 , U.S. Individual Income Tax Return	DEC. 31, 2007

What Should You Do?

If you have not filed this tax return, please do the following:

- Prepare your tax return,
- Sign the return,
- Attach your payment for any tax due, and we'll bill for any interest and penalties.

If you cannot pay the entire amount when you file this tax return, please do the following:

- Send as large of a payment as you can, and
- Contact us to make arrangements to pay the balance.

If you have already filed this tax return, please do the following:

- Send us a copy of it,
- Sign it or re-sign it,
- Date it, and
- Allow 6 to 8 weeks to process your return.

If you are due a refund, you must do the following:

- File within 3 years of the original due date of the tax return, or
- File within 2 years from the date the tax was paid, whichever is later.

RE: CP59 July 27, 2009

To Whom It May Concern:

I have your form letter Request for Your Tax Return dated July 27, 2009. If I have "income" as defined by the Internal Revenue Code, and if a Tax Return is required, it is my intent to comply as expeditiously as I can.

I accept your offer to require of me an information return for the year in question upon proof of claim that I had any taxable and reported income for that year.

To help me determine whether I have income and need to file a Return, please give me an assessment and show me the basis for such assessment. If there are any 1099s that may have been filed for 2007, either correctly or erroneously, please forward them to me so that I may examine them for correctness.

I look forward to your response, as it is my intent to resolve this matter in compliance with the law.

Regards,
